Speech-Language Pathologist Department of Speech-Language Pathology Halifax

Nova Scotia Hearing and Speech Centres (NSHSC) is a program of the provincial Department of Health and Wellness. Established in 1963, NSHSC works to prevent and reduce the impact of communication disorders for Nova Scotians.

We are proud to offer:

- ✓ A nationally accredited program with CASLPA
- ✓ A Province-wide support network of professional colleagues, clinical resources, and coordinated clinical services
- ✓ Varied caseloads and work settings
- ✓ Salaries commensurate with experience [starting at $64,127], and excellent benefits package
- ✓ Continuing education opportunities
- ✓ Opportunities for relocation and clinical specialization

We are accepting applications for the temporary, full-time (1.0 fte) position of Speech-Language Pathologist. The Home Base Site is the QEII. The successful candidate reports to the assigned Clinical Director. Schedule to be determined.

Requirements:

- Master's Degree in Speech-Language Pathology
- CASLPA certification or eligible for certification
- Excellent communication skills, including proficiency in written and spoken English
- Experience with provision of assessment and treatment of communication and dysphagia for adult clients in acute, rehab and outpatient settings
- Familiarity with a variety of service delivery options for adult caseloads
- Demonstrated commitment to family-centered care
- Flexibility in work schedule to support outreach/parachute services
- Flexibility to travel throughout NS on a regular basis
- Valid Nova Scotia drivers license and access to a reliable vehicle as travel is required
- Experience with voice assessment and treatment

Assets:

- Experience working with transdisciplinary clinical teams and working with supportive personnel (e.g. Communication Disorder Technicians)
- Training and experience providing formal caregiver training programs
- Experience in provision of outreach clinics
- Ability to provide bilingual clinical services
